

SCHOOR DEPALMA COMMUNITY FOUNDATION TEAMS UP WITH MONMOUTH UNIVERSITY *Monmouth University's Psychology Club and United Way Spearhead Baby Bundle Drive

Manalapan - May 8, 2007 - The Schoor DePalma Community Foundation teamed up with the Monmouth University Psychology Club and the United Way to help collect items to fill "baby bundles". The program was brought to the Foundation's attention through the actions of a Schoor DePalma employee, Erin Sammon, who works in the Office Services Department. She worked with the Schoor DePalma Community Foundation to facilitate the collection of items and donations for babies in need, and the donations were used to purchase other items for the "baby bundles". Ms. Sammon's dedication to her cause drew great generosity from other members of the Schoor DePalma family. They collected numerous items; including, baby clothes, food, wipes, bibs, bedding, bottles, rattles, pacifiers and other health care items.

Erin is a resident of Union, NJ.

About the Schoor DePalma Community Foundation

The Schoor DePalma Community Foundation is a 501(c)3 non-profit company that was formed as a private, charitable extension of the company's long-standing public commitment to community service. The Foundation operates exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, and makes grants to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations. Emphasis is given to organizations that can demonstrate an ability to cost effectively deliver services and benefits that meet the needs of the local community. Grant requests are considered by the Foundation's Board of Trustees who also establish the policies and guidelines for the Foundation grants or donations.

The Schoor DePalma Community Foundation was established in 2004 to "make a difference" in the communities where the company's employees work, live and play. To date the foundation has donated more than $800,000 to programs in the areas of Healthcare, Community, Education and Children.
