

SCHOOR DEPALMA COMMUNITY FOUNDATION TO SUPPORT VSA ARTS OF NEW JERSEY Annual Casino Night Honors Individuals with Disabilities

Manalapan, NJ - February 27, 2007 - The Schoor DePalma Community Foundation today announced that the primary beneficiary of its 2nd Annual Casino Night will be VSA Arts of New Jersey. This year's event is titled, "Speakeasy in The Roaring 20's." The event will take place on April 27th at 7:00PM at the East Brunswick Hilton Hotel.

VSA of New Jersey provides arts programming throughout New Jersey and resource and referral services for individuals or organizations requiring information or assistance with arts issues as they relate to individuals with disabilities, accessibility, and physical or programmatic accommodations.

"We are pleased to partner with VSA to 'make a difference' in the lives of our neighbors with disabilities by supporting their visual and performing arts programs," said John Walsh, Chairman of The Schoor DePalma Community Foundation.

VSA Arts is an organization that is dedicated to enriching the lives and promoting the creative power of individuals with disabilities through the development and support of inclusive cultural, educational and recreational programs. Programs include Artist Residencies, Parent/Child Workshops in Music/Movement, The Unlimited Potential Theater Company, Professional Development for Educators and Exhibits and Festivals.

The Schoor DePalma Community Foundation was established in 2004 to "make a difference" in the communities where the company's employees work, live and play. To date the foundation has donated more than $800,000 to programs in the areas of Healthcare, Community, Education and Children.
